

Contents

Foreword	vii
--------------------	-----

Part A. Stillness and Concentration: Logotherapy Applied to Tinnitus and Chronic Illness

Introduction: Listening to Silence.	3
1: A Fulfilled Life Despite Pain?	7
2: No One is Superfluous or Replaceable	9
3: Something Important Awaits Each Person	13
4: Yes, Wonders Do Still Happen!	17
5: Mind and Body Working Together.	21
6: How to Let Go of Fears	25
7: Cheerfulness as a Philosophy of Life.	29
8: How Can Anything Become Good Again?	33
9: Power and Responsibility	37
10: Self-Conquest out of Love	41
11: Uselessness—Appearance and Reality.	45
12: Sending Them Back to the Deep.	49
13: Sending Them Ahead to the Waiting Room	53
14: Time Brings Many Surprises.	57
15: The “Aha!” Experience of Seeing Things From the Other Side.	61
16: The House With the Golden Windows.	65
17: A Question to Think About	69
18: Keeping One’s Eyes on the Lighthouse of Meaning.	73

Part B. Reflections on a Psychotherapy With Dignity

19: Meaning and Goals in Life for People With Chronic Illness	79
20: The “Birthmarks” of Paradoxical Intention	93
21: A Validation of Logotherapy.	101
22: Counseling Tactics and Personality Structure	113
23: Logotherapy on Hysteria	137
24: Logotherapy in the Practice of Clinical Psychology.	145